Revised 6-9-16

P. 19: Under 'Who can apply for financial aid?' the fifth bullet point, 'Must not have exceeded the established AWC loan limit of $15,000 (if applying for a student loan)', has been removed.

P.29 Deadlines for Dropping Classes and Receiving a Refund revised to:

In order to receive a full refund for dropped classes, AWC's Refund Policy is as follows:

- For full semester-length Fall or Spring classes, an official drop must occur prior to or during the first five days of the semester.
- For full semester-length Summer classes, an official drop must occur prior to or during the first three days of the semester.
- For face-to-face classes that meet less than a full semester length, an official drop must occur prior to 11:59 p.m. before the second class meeting (Some common examples include Ex. 1: If first class meets on Monday and second class meets on Tuesday, must drop by 11:59 p.m. Monday night; Ex. 2: If first class meets on Monday and second class meets on Wednesday, must drop by 11:59 p.m. Tuesday night; Ex. 3: If first class meets on Monday and second class meets the following Monday, must drop by 11:59 p.m. Sunday night, regardless that it occurs after the end of official drop/add period. This list is not all inclusive of all situations).
- For online or hybrid classes that meet less than a full semester length, an official drop must occur prior to 11:59 p.m. of the start date (i.e. if start date of class is Monday, must drop by 11:59 p.m. Monday. Online and hybrid classes are considered to meet every day)
- For classes that meet a total of four times or less, an official drop must occur prior to 11:59 p.m. before start date of class.

The College accepts no responsibility for dropping you from the specific classes you intended not to take. Officially dropping will ensure that you will not be charged for classes that you do not attend.
