

Student Government Association (SGA) Election Rules

- Examples of the campaign materials must be submitted to the Office of Campus Life staff and approved before it can be displayed via email at Campus.Life@azwestern.edu
- Digital platforms such as Facebook, Instagram and Twitter are permitted.
- Facebook Groups are permitted as part of the campaign. However, the wall MUST BE DISABLED so that people cannot leave comments.
- Facebook, Instagram and Twitter are allowed during campaigning week but CANNOT be used during the election days.
- Candidates can record and post videos to social media to share with the student body

Candidates are not allowed to go live on any platform.

Candidates' videos can be a maximum of 30 seconds, and executive candidates' videos can be one minute.

- During elections, NO NEW campaign materials can be posted online. Candidates and their friends CANNOT place Facebook statuses or tweets that ask students to vote for them. They can only say "Don't forget to vote in the SGA election"

Where possible, candidates should disable comments on any social media post, group, or event.

- If you are in doubt whether something is allowed, ask before you do it. It's better to be safe than to find yourself disqualified.
- Campaign materials are to be removed by the candidate/supporters within 24 hours of the conclusion of the election.

Disqualifications:

- A violation of any of the election rules or student code of conduct by any candidate may lead to disqualification.
- If a candidate is removed from the election process, the candidate with the next highest vote total will assume the disqualified candidate's position
