

ASSOCIATE IN ARTS (A.A) AWC ADVISEMENT CHECK SHEET

To help you decide upon which courses to include in both the major and elective blocks, you and your advisor should consult university requirements for specific required and recommended courses.

PHILOSOPHY

Student Name	ID #	Advisor	Major Code: AA.PHILO
			Credits: 64

The study of Philosophy has as its primary aim, the seeking of wisdom and understanding with regard to some of the most profound topics that have ever been contemplated by mankind. This program constitutes an excellent liberal arts foundation for students planning to pursue university studies in philosophy, law, education, communications, and art, among others.

*Dual Application of Courses is the sharing of coursework between the AGEC and major or program requirements which allows the student to meet both requirements with a single course. Students must still meet the required number of credits to satisfy the program or degree. This dual application of courses gives students the opportunity to include additional course work under general electives.

List any courses used to satisfy program or degree credits due to dual application:	Cr	Gr	Sem	App*	Notes

One cultural (C) course and one global (G) or historical (H) course are required. Two writing intensive (WI) courses are required. ENG 101 is a prerequisite for all WI courses. Consult the current catalog for a list of approved courses.
