

ARIZONA WESTERN COLLEGE
SYLLABUS

FAS 238 HUMAN DEVELOPMENT

(Same as PSY 238)

Credit Hours: 3 Lec 3

General Education Course: WI (Writing Intensive)
C (Ethnic, Race, Gender Awareness)

PREREQUISITE: ENG 101 or 107

THIS COURSE IS DESIGNATED AS WRITING INTENSIVE: Arizona Western College believes writing provides a unique opportunity to learn disciplinary content while mastering writing skills. Writing-Intensive (WI) courses at Arizona Western College integrate writing assignments in ways that help students learn both the subject matter of the courses and discipline-specific ways of thinking and writing. Writing Intensive courses help develop students' identities as good writers by linking their writing proficiency with their desire to know more about the field of study, to engage in questions in the discipline, and to become a participant in academic discourse.

COURSE DESCRIPTION

General insight into the human growth and development process from conception to death. Leading life span developmental theories and concepts are explored. Provides information for family and consumer sciences, nursing, psychology, sociology and physical education majors. Students planning to transfer this course should also take PSY 101 which many universities require as prerequisite.

1. COURSE GOALS

- 1.1 Explain heredity and environmental factors, which influence development of an individual from before birth throughout the lifespan.
- 1.2 Discuss basic concepts of physical, emotional, social, and intellectual development of people and how these concepts interrelate.
- 1.3 Name and explain various developmental theories and some of the more prominent persons who have contributed to the study of human development.
- 1.4 Identify the "at risk" factors associated with each stage level; factors which, when severe, can disable the individual's joy in living.

2. OUTCOMES

Upon satisfactory completion of this course, students will be able to:

- 2.1 describe the process of prenatal development including identifying the biological and environmental factors that may affect that development.
- 2.2 relate how health and nutrition affect physical development throughout the lifespan.
- 2.3 explain sequences of perceptual and physical development from birth to death.
- 2.4 describe cultural and societal factors, which may affect social and emotional development throughout the lifespan.
- 2.5 describe how gender differences impact the social and emotional development throughout the lifespan.
- 2.6 outline major theories of cognitive and moral development throughout the lifespan.
- 2.7 describe the development of language and communication throughout life.
- 2.8 explain the importance of play in the overall development of the individual during his lifespan.
- 2.9 relate principles of development to observations completed on individuals of all ages. The observations continually ask the student to respond on race, ethnic, and gender differences.
- 2.10 generate appropriate writing discourse according to the AWC Writing Intensive Courses: General Education guidelines.

WI OUTCOMES

Upon satisfactory completion of this course, students will be able to:

- 2.11 Demonstrate critical inquiry through the gathering, interpretation, and evaluation of evidence in writing.

- 2.12 Develop flexible strategies for generating ideas, revising, editing, and proofreading, using instructor and peer feedback on written discourse to guide improvement through revision.
- 2.13 Effectively compose discipline-specific writing, which includes overall organization, analysis, grammar, mechanics, punctuation, and style.
- 2.14 Develop strategies for composing both in class and out of class compositions.
- 2.15 Demonstrate through written discourse a sequence of increasing complexity/skill in knowledge of content as well as discipline specific discourse form.

 - 7.2 If a student is unable to attend the course or must drop the course for any reason, it will be the responsibility of the student to withdraw from the course. Students who are not attending as of the 45th day of the course may be withdrawn by the instructor. If the student does not withdraw from the course and fails to complete the requirements of the course, the student will receive a failing grade.
 - 7.3 Americans with Disabilities Act Accommodations: Arizona Western College provides academic accommodations to students with disabilities through AccessABILITY Resource Services (ARS). ARS provides reasonable and appropriate accommodations to students who have documented disabilities. It is the responsibility of the student to make the ARS Coordinator aware of the need for accommodations in the classroom prior to the beginning of the semester. Students should follow up with their instructors once the semester begins. To make an appointment call the ARS front desk at (928) 344-7674 or ARS Coordinator at (928) 344-7629, in the College Community Center (3C) building, next to Advising.
 - 7.4 Academic Integrity: Any student participating in acts of academic dishonesty—including, but not limited to, copying the work of other students, using unauthorized “crib notes”, plagiarism, stealing tests, or forging an instructor's signature—will be subject to the procedures and consequences outlined in AWC's Student Code of Conduct.
