SYLLABUS

MUS 103 PEP BAND

Credit Hours: 1 Lec 1 Lab 2

PREREQUISITE: None

COURSE DESCRIPTION

Beginning level of band performance at public events. The band is open to all musicians; it is a multi-level class.

1. COURSE GOAL

The student musician will continue his or her musical growth at a higher level of proficiency than experienced in high school. Artistic and technically proficient performances at athletic events and at civic and campus functions will be the aim of the organization. The band will also present a concert of wind ensemble and jazz/pop literature.

2. OUTCOMES

Upon satisfactory completion of this course, students will:

- 2.1 demonstrate a basic knowledge of music fundamentals.
- 2.2 demonstrate a basic level of technical proficiency.
- 2.3 demonstrate a broad sense of responsibility in regard to ensemble performance.

3. METHODS OF INSTRUCTION

Instruction of the highly integrated skills and concepts in music will follow standard methods of rehearsal

4. LEARNING ACTIVITIES

- 4.1 Each class will be a rehearsal setting
- 4.2 New music will be studied and learned
- 4.3 Learned music will be rehearsed to improve artistic performance
- 4.4 Concepts and skills for artistic performance will be taught

5. EVALUATION

- 5.1 Grades will be earned by an assortment of learning activities, performances, assignments, and participation
- 5.2 Please see the class schedule and assignment sheet for more information

6. STUDENT RESPONSIBILITIES

- 6.1 Under AWC Policy, students are expected to attend every session of class in which they are enrolled.
- 6.2 If a student is unable to attend the course or must drop the course for any reason, it will be the responsibility of the student to withdraw from the course. Students who are not attending as of the 45th day of the course will be withdrawn by the instructor. If the student does not withdraw from the course and fails to complete the requirements of the course, the student will receive a failing grade.
- 6.3 Americans with Disabilities Act Accommodations: Arizona Western College provides academic accommodations to students with disabilities through AccessABILITY Resource Services (ARS). ARS provides reasonable and appropriate accommodations to students who have documented disabilities. It is the responsibility of the student to make the ARS Coordinator aware of the need for accommodations in the classroom prior to the beginning of the semester. Students should follow up with their instructors once the semester begins. To make an appointment call the ARS front desk at (928) 344-7674 or ARS Coordinator at (928) 344-7629, in the College Community Center (3C) building, next to Advising.
- 6.4 Academic Integrity: any student participating in acts of academic dishonesty including, but not limited to, copying the work of other students, using unauthorized “crib notes,” plagiarism, stealing tests, or forging an instructor’s signature will be subject to the procedures and consequences outlined in AWC’s Student Code of Conduct.
- 6.5 Texts and Notebooks: students are required to obtain the class materials for the course.
- 6.6 Arizona Western College students are expected to attend every class session in which they are enrolled. To comply with Federal Financial Aid regulations (34 CFR 668.21), Arizona Western College (AWC) has established an Attendance Verification process for “No Show” reporting during the first 10 days of each semester.
- Students who have enrolled but have never attended class may be issued a “No Show” (NS) grade by the professor or instructor and receive a final grade of “NS” on their official academic record. An NS grade may result in a student losing their federal financial aid.
- For online classes, student attendance in an online class is defined as the following (FSA Handbook, 2012, 5-90):
- Submitting an academic assignment
 - Taking an exam, an interactive tutorial or computer-assisted instruction
 - Attending a study group that is assigned by the school
 - Participating in an online discussion about academic matters
 - Initiating contact with a faculty member to ask a question about the academic subject studied in the course
