

Interested in teaching?

Join us for an info session.

Take the opportunity to learn about what makes MLFTC at Yuma different, the application process and financial aid opportunities.

Choose from two ASU degree programs in Education:

Bachelor of Arts in Education (BAE) — Secondary Education

Earn your certification and develop the knowledge and skills to successfully teach grades 6-12. Choose from concentrations in math, science, English or history.

Bachelor of Arts in Education (BAE) — Elementary Education and Special Education (Dual Certification)

Earn a dual certification to educate children: Mild-Moderate Disabilities Special Education in grades K–12 and Elementary Education for grades K–8. Develop the knowledge and skills to successfully teach elementary school kids, as well as children requiring special education in any grade.
