Section:	Personnel	Subject:	Rights of an Employee Who Makes a Disclosure of Public Concern

No adverse personnel action will be taken against an employee in the Yuma-La Paz Counties Community College District in retaliation or reprisal for the written disclosure of information of a matter of public concern by the employee to a public body. The Yuma-La Paz Counties Community College District Governing Board will act as an independent hearing board to hear all cases of alleged violations of the employment rights of an employee who makes such a disclosure.
