

LGS 114

Sustainability in Supply Chain

This course explores sustainable practices in supply chain management, emphasizing environmental responsibility, social equity, and economic viability. Students will examine strategies for reducing carbon footprints, implementing circular economy principles, promoting ethical sourcing, and building resilient supply chains. Through real-world case studies and industry applications, students will gain the knowledge and skills needed to support sustainability initiatives across global supply networks.

Continuing Education

COST: $315

FOR MORE INFORMATION

CONTINUINGED@AZWESTERN.EDU • 928-317-7674